General Livestock Rules

1. Good sportsmanship and ethical conduct is expected and required from all exhibitors and their guests. Anyone found to be mistreating an animal or participating in unethical practices will be asked to leave and premiums will be forfeited.
2. The Carroll County Fair Commission reserves the right to refuse any animal. Any complaint regarding livestock shows should be made in writing to the chairman of the fair commission, Kevin Semones. His decision will be final.
3. Any animal suspected of carrying a contagious disease will not be permitted in the livestock shows. The rabbit show committee, upon check-in, will inspect rabbits. Market lambs will be evaluated before weigh-in by a veterinarian. If an animal is suspected of carrying a contagious disease or otherwise unfit for showing, the owner of the animal will be asked to remove the animal from the show grounds and the animal cannot be shown. All other animals must have a health certificate dated within 30 days of the show.
4. Livestock classes are subject to change.
5. Showmanship classes will be held at the beginning of each species show. A contestant can only register in one showmanship class per species. Novice showmanship is defined as having never shown the specific species at a show.
6. Awards for showmanship classes will consist of prizes. Additional prizes may be awarded for champions of each species.
7. Exhibitors and two adults will be admitted to the fair for free. The exhibitor and the two adults must be in the same vehicle which is hauling the livestock.
8. Each exhibitor will be limited to five lambs for the Market Lamb Show.
9. Exhibitors are responsible for being ringside for classes. All efforts will be made for exhibitors to be informed of the class order. However, it is ultimately the responsibility of the exhibitor to show in the class in which they are entered. If any exhibitor misses a class, they will not be re-entered into a different class.
10. For additional information regarding the livestock show, contact chairperson - Stephen Pottorff, at 276-730-3113.
